Dear Sharon: If daughters were flowers, I'd pick you always.

*Dear Mom: I love you so much, I am going to miss you.
We will meet again in Heaven. Love your son, Antonio*

Miss Me But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?*

*Miss me a little- but not for long
And not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that we once shared
Miss me- but let me go*

*For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone
Its all a part of the master plan
A step on the toad to home*

*When you are lonely and sick of heart
Go to the friends we know
And burry your sorrows in doing good deeds
Miss me- But let me go!*

The Obituary

Miss Sharon Lynn Bailey was born September 29, 1968 to mother, Marie Kelso (Bailey) and father, Tony Hunter.

Sharon departed this life on February 8, 2022.

Sharon was a very compassionate, loving, and caring daughter, sister, niece, and friend.

Sharon leaves to cherish her memory, son, Antonio Bailey; mother, Marie Kelso; brothers, Edward Bailey and Anthony (Nancy) Bailey; uncle, William (Janette) Bailey; aunts, Beverly Bailey and Licia Riggins; loving very near and dear special friend, Billy Doughty; loving friends, Karen and Sharon Taylor, and Yvette Hopkins; and a host of nieces and nephews who loved her dearly..

Sharon will be truly missed by all those who had the privilege of knowing and loving her.

I am the resurrection and the life: He that believeth in me though he were dead yet shall he live.

And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die.

John 11:25-26
