Miss Me But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room
Why cry for a soul set free
Miss me a little- but not for long
And not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that we once shared
Miss me- but let me go
For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone
Its all a part of the master plan
A step on the toad to home
When you are lonely and sick of heart
Go to the friends we know
And burry your sorrows in doing good deeds
Miss me- But let me go!*

The Obituary

Shirley Ann Bridgeforth, sunrise June 23, 1954 and sunset June 23, 2021. Shirley was born in Columbia, South Carolina, and raised in Cincinnati, Ohio.

Shirley graduated from Mt. Healthy HS in 1972 and continued her education where she graduated and received her BA from West Virginia State University in 1976. She was also a member of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority.

Shirley married Isaac Bridgeforth Jr. on August 12, 1977. They had 2 children: Isaac (Kourtnee) and Tia Bridgeforth. Shirley was fun, loving, kind, educated, and always prepared. She loved shopping, traveling, and hanging with family and friends. She was currently employed with the YWCA of Central Ohio headstart program as the education coordinator.

Shirley was preceded in death by her father, Richard Mitchell; and mother, Rosa Wages. Along with her children, Isaac (Kourtnee) and Tia Bridgeforth, left to cherish her memory are her 3 grandchildren, Tyler Richard Bridgeforth, Kennedi Bridgeforth, and Kraig Gibson; sisters, Deborah Johnson, Sandra Mitchell, Uyonne Rilter, Mary Louise Reece, and Mary Alice Caldwell; friends, Sandra Gunter, Ann Bridgeforth, Leo Wright, Pee Wee, Kelly, Jackie White, and Gwen Mitchell; and many other friends and family.

Shirley will be missed by family, friends, and all that had the honor of knowing her.
