The Broken Chain

We little knew that morning
That God would call your name
In life we loved you dearly
In death we do the same

It broke our hearts to lose you
You did not go alone
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home

You left us beautiful memories
Your love is still our guide
And although we cannot see you
You're always by our side

Our family chain is broken
And nothing seems the same
But as God calls us one by one
The chain will link again

Obituary

Betty Lee Dungy, age 85, of Columbus, OH, passed away on February 6, 2021.

Betty was born in Radford, VA, on July 24, 1935, daughter of the late Homer, Sr., and Angelina Lewis Johnson.

Betty was a devoted and loving wife, mother, daughter, sister, and friend. She moved to Columbus, OH in the 1950's where she met the love of her life. March 1958, she married her soulmate. From this union she had two children who she cherished and loved. A stickler for education, she raised her children with a fond love of learning and the courage to always pursue their dreams.

An inspiration to women in science, technology, engineering, and math (STEM), Betty became a trailblazer in the aerospace industry. She dedicated her entire career as a faithful employee of Rockwell International (Boeing) and BF Goodrich Flight Systems. Betty was proud of the significant work she did on the electronic system of the B1 Bomber. She retired from BF Goodrich Flight Systems in 2000 leaving a legacy for the future of other young women aspiring to work in the aerospace and STEM fields.

Betty is preceded in death by her parents, Homer, Sr., and Angelina Lewis Johnson and brother, Carlton Lewis Johnson.

Betty is survived by her spouse, Charles Edward Dungy; sons, David and Jason Dungy; brother, Homer Johnson, Jr; sister-in-law, Ruby Johnson.

*I am the resurrection and the life: He that believeth in me though he were dead yet shall he live.
And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die.*

John 11:25-26

To Those Whom I Love and Those Who Love Me

When I am gone, release me, let me go.
I have so many things to see and do,
You must not tie yourself to me with too many tears,
But be thankful we had so many good years.

I gave you my love, and you can only guess
How much you've given me in happiness.
I thank you for the love that you have shown,
But now it is time I traveled on alone.

So grieve for me a while, if grieve you must,
Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It is only for a while that we must part,
So treasure the memories within your heart.

I won't be far away for life goes on.
And if you need me, call and I will come.

Though you can't see or touch me, I will be near.
And if you listen with your heart, you'll hear,
All my love around you soft and clear.

And then, when you come this way alone,
I'll greet you with a smile and a 'Welcome Home'.
