A Broken Chain

We knew little that morning, that God was going to call your name. In life we loved you dearly, In death we do the same. It broke our hearts to lose you. You did not go alone: For part of us went with you, The day God called you home.

You left us peaceful memories, Your love is still our guide: And though we cannot see you, You are always at our side. Our family chain is broken, And nothing seems the same; But as GOD calls us one by one, The Chain will link again.

With guidance and courage as we travel down this road A Mom, A Grandma, A Sister, A Wife. You've took each of our hands and held us down through life. Such a beautiful Angel, I know they you'll shine bright. You're a breath of fresh air, now living inside the light.

I needn't worry I know that you're at peace. I'll miss all your hugs and all your kisses on the cheek. I know that you're free, No more feeling weak. This one we will celebrate and rejoice on our feet.

We all we miss you; we embrace your love. But when we think of you, we'll get hugs from above.

Love your Granddaughter Iyanna
