

Acknowledgements

We are most grateful for the gift of friends and family who have been so kind and thoughtful during these hours of sorrow. Your prayers, visits, calls, flowers, and every act of kindness has given us comfort and strengthened our family. Again we say, THANK YOU

Letter from Heaven

*When tomorrow starts without me,
and I'm not here to see, if the sun should rise and find your eyes, filled with tears for me.*

*I wish so much you wouldn't cry,
the way you did today,
while thinking of the many things
we didn't get to say.*

*I know how much you love me,
as much as I love you,
and each time you think of me,
I know you'll miss me too.*

*When tomorrow starts without me,
don't think we're far apart,
for every time you think of me,
I'm right there in your heart. ♥*

Reflections of Life

Elizabeth Caldwell, a beloved member of the Columbus community, passed away on April 3, 2024, at her home in Columbus, Ohio. She was born on August 14, 1954, in Atlanta, Georgia and lived a life filled with love and dedication to her family.

Elizabeth worked tirelessly as a housekeeper in the hospitality industry, where she left a lasting impact with her hard work and dedication. She was a proud mother to her children, Cawanna, Janice, Willie, Maurice, Sofia, and Allen, who meant the world to her.

A woman of strength and resilience, Elizabeth's legacy will live on through her children and the memories she shared with those around her.

Throughout her life, Elizabeth was active in the community and had a special bond with her sister, B.J. Washington, and brother, Ollis Daniels.

She was preceded in death by her life partner, Ronald Brooks; parents, Dee and Josie Butler; sister Katie Hughes; and nephews, Calvin Hughes and Enrique Ross.

Elizabeth is survived by her children, Cawanna, Janice, Willie, Maurice, Sofia, and Allen. She was a loving grandmother and great-grandmother who cherished every moment spent with her family, whether fishing with her grandchildren, bowling, or playing softball. Her infectious joy and adventurous spirit will be deeply missed by all who had the privilege of knowing her.
