

Acknowledgement

Though it may be difficult to thank each of you individually, we would like to take this opportunity to express our sincere appreciation for your thoughtfulness, unwavering support, cards, flowers, calls, texts, virtual hugs, and heartfelt condolences.

A Letter For My Sister

It was you who taught me to be fearless and brave at a very young age. I constantly followed in your footsteps and though it may have seemed I was traveling a different path it was you who laid the blueprint. Though your journey on earth was short you left me your most precious gift, Ava. Thank you for always allowing me to be the "EXTRA" aunt (CoCo). I promise to share all your accomplishments and the memories while also instilling in her the same fearlessness and bravery you once carried.

*I love you Sissy,
- Your baby sister (Courtney)*

Don't Cry For Me

*Don't cry for me. I will be okay.
Heaven is my home now, and this is where I'll stay.
Don't cry for me. I'm where I belong.
I want you to be happy and try to stay strong.*

*Don't cry for me. I am not alone.
The angels are with me to welcome me home.*

*Don't cry for me, for I have no fear.
All my pain is gone, and Jesus took my tears.
Don't cry for me. This is not the end.
I'll be waiting here for you when we meet again.*

Obituary

The Lord called Brittny Lorin Malone, 36, home on February 27, 2023, leaving behind a legacy of love and inspiration.

She was born on November 20, 1986, in Atlanta, Georgia to Thomas Edward and Lisa Kay Malone. She was a beloved daughter, sister, mother and friend., whose life touched many hearts.

Brittny was christened in 1986 at Eliezer Church of Christ under the guidance of Bishop Sandy Dunlap. Over the years Brittny would occasionally attend Eliezer for Sunday Service.

Brittny was a graduate of East High School, where she played clarinet in the marching band and was also a member of ROTC. She was an accomplished student, passionate about the creative arts and teaching others how to lean into their own creative spirit. She frequently devoted her time to the Short Stop After School Program, where she sang and wrote poetry, showcasing her talents.

After high school, Brittny became a proud Hornet at Alabama State University, a historical black college/university, where she continued scholastic achievement and her pursuit of musicianship. She was a member of the National Honor Society and the “Mighty Hornets” Marching Band, where she played her clarinet with great pride. She was also a member of the national band sorority Tau Beta Sigma, where they shared a passion for musicianship and sisterhood.

In addition to music, Brittny also had a love for arts and crafts. She spent countless hours creating beautiful pieces of art that will forever be cherished by those who knew her and appreciated her craft.

Although she loved the arts her greatest joy was becoming a mother. On April 22· 2015 Brittny welcomed Ava Kay Malone into the world.

Brittny was pro ceded in death by her parents, Thomas Edward and Lisa Kay Malone, her aunt Shirlene Smith and her grandparents Willie and Ella Louise Wright and her Uncle Mickey Thompson. She leaves behind her daughter Ava Kay Malone, who was the pr ide and joy of her life, her sister Courtney Elyse Malone and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.

RECESSIONAL	Clergy, Family, and Friends

I have fought a good fight; I have finished my course; I have kept the faith. Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness which the Lord, the righteous Judge, shall give me on that Day and not to me only, but unto all those also who love His appearing.
2 Timothy 4:7-8

I'll Just Wait in Heaven

*I'll just wait in Heaven
Till we meet again
I know you miss me
Just remember I am free*

*Free from pain and sorrow
God's love fills each tomorrow
My love is in your heart
We'll never be apart*

*Cherish the love we share
Remember how much I care
Someday we'll be together
Because love lives forever!*

*So, I'll just wait in heaven
Till we meet again*

Brittny A Letter from Tau Beta Sigma

Espressivo, a name that was quite befitting for you because you were never afraid to express your thoughts or views. Such an amazing woman, you commanded the room with your wit and poise. It was truly a blessing and an honor when a group of 5 women from all different musical backgrounds became one in a sisterhood and bond in the Spring of 2007. That bond will live on for eternity. Brittny, you were the epitome of a leader, sister, mother and friend.

Although it is difficult for us to understand why your journey here was so brief, we find peace in knowing that you're no longer suffering and watching over us from the heavens above. You were an amazing sister on earth, and will continue to be our amazing angel sister in heaven.

We love you and miss you.

*Your sisters,
F.A.C.E.S
Spring 2007*
