Invictus

Out of the night that covers me,
Black as the pit from pole to pole,
I thank whatever gods may be
For my unconquerable soul.

In the fell clutch of circumstance
I have not winced nor cried aloud.
Under the bludgeonings of chance
My head is bloody, but unbowed.

Beyond this place of wrath and tears
Looms but the Horror of the shade,
And yet the menace of the years
Finds and shall find me unafraid.

It matters not how strait the gate,
How charged with punishments the scroll,
I am the master of my fate,
I am the captain of my soul.

Obituary

Donovan Latrell Lewis was born to Rebecca Stewart (Duran) and Daryl Lewis on May 14th, 2002. Donovan was the middle child of seven.

Every aspect of Donovan was grand from his entrance into this world to his untimely death. His high energy and enthusiastic personality made him both a handful and a ball of fun! His family knew that he was special! He could brighten any room. Donovan was all about inclusivity and never met a stranger. He was both passionate and insightful. Some would say wise beyond his years.

Donovan was an avid sportsman, he played basketball and football throughout high school. His true passion was music, with a keenness for spoken word. During his youth he served alongside his family in numerous volunteer initiatives thus furthering his love of the community. It was his desire to see everyone win. Donovan's sole purpose in life was to love and to be loved for being himself #BeYourself

Donovan leaves to cherish his memories, parents, siblings, other relatives, girlfriend, and a host of friends.

Donovan will be missed by all those who had the privilege of knowing and loving him.
