

Acknowledgement

The family of Eugene Wynn is extremely grateful for all acts of kindness displayed during this difficult time; whether you sent a card or flowers, spoke comforting words, lent a shoulder, whispered a prayer or simply kept us in your thoughts, we appreciate it and it has not gone unnoticed.

I Am Not There

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard his call,
I turned my back and left it all.*

*I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of the day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.*

*Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My Life's been full, I savoured much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch,*

*Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.*

Obituary

Eugene Wynn was born in Talladega, Alabama on July 1, 1931.

Eugene worked and retired from Battelle Research Institute as a custodian supervisor. Eugene also had his own cement and carpentry business.

Eugene is preceded in death by his father, Earnest Wynn; mother, Beatrice Holts; son Larry Wilkins; and daughter, Robin Coles.

Eugene leaves to cherish his memory, loving wife, Alice Wynn; daughters, Kendra (Gregory) Short and Knenita Wynn; son, Keith R. Coles; stepson, James Wilkins; special daughter, Cynthis Powell; special son, Greg Johnson; and a host of grandchildren, other relatives, and friends.

Eugene will be truly missed by all those who had the privilege of knowing and loving him.

*I am the resurrection and the life: He that believeth in me though he were dead yet shall he live.
And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die.*

John 11:25-26

Fathers are Wonderful People

By. Helen Steiner Rice

*Fathers are wonderful people
Too little understood,
And we do not sing their praises
As often as we should...*

*For, somehow, Father seems to be
The man who pays the bills,
While Mother binds up little hurts
And nurses all our ills...*

*And Father struggles daily
To live up to "HIS IMAGE"
As protector and provider
And "hero or the scrimmage"*

*And perhaps that is the reason
We sometimes get the notion,
That Fathers are not subject
To the thing we call emotion,*

*But if you look inside Dad's heart,
Where no one else can see
You'll find he's sentimental
And as "soft" as he can be...*

*But he's so busy every day
In the grueling race of life,
He leaves the sentimental stuff
To his partner and his wife...*

*But Fathers are just WONDERFUL
In a million different ways,
And they merit loving compliments
And accolade of praise,*

*For the only reason Dad aspires
To fortune and success
Is to make the family proud of him
And to bring them happiness...*

*And like OUR HEAVENLY FATHER,
E's a guardian and a guide,
Someone that we can count on
To be ALWAYS ON OUR SIDE*
