MOTHERS

From a daughter to her mother
On this special day each year
I don't say it very often
But you know I love you dear

Mothers are someone special
For I know this to be true
I have always had this fear
I won't be as good of one as you

Someone whose never sick
Not even for one day
Someone whose always friendly
Or has something nice to say

And no matter what the problem
A mother is always there
Someone with all the answers
Someone who always cares

A mothers' love is something only few will really know
This kind of love is true love
'cause it helps a child to grow

Now this daughter is all grown up
And is now a mother too
I just pray that my children love me
Just as much as I love you.
