Matthew 8:24-27

And when he was entered into a ship, his disciples followed him. And behold, there arose a great tempest in the sea insomuch that the ship was covered with the waves but he was asleep.

And his disciples came to him and awoke him saying,
Lord, save us, we perish.

And he said unto them, Why are ye fearful, ye of little faith? Then he arose and rebuked the winds and the sea; and there was a great calm.

But the men marveled saying, What manner of man is this, that even the winds and the sea obey him.

I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. Now there is in store for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will award to me on that day—and not only to me, but also to all who have longed for his appearing.
