Prayer of Saint Francis

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace;
Where there is hatred, let me sow love;
Where there is injury, pardon;
Where there is doubt, faith;
Where there is despair, hope;
Where there is darkness, light;
And where there is sadness, joy.

O Divine Master,
Grant that I may not so much seek
To be consoled as to console;
To be understood as to understand;
To be loved as to love.
For it is in giving that we receive;
It is in pardoning
that we are pardoned;
And it is in dying
that we are born to eternal life.
Amen

The Obituary

Beth McCammon is finally at peace on the 15th day of August, 2022. Born a Pisces in Cleveland, Ohio on February 21, 1953.

She was able to survive and thrive through the 2020 Pandemic with the love and support she connected within an on-line crochet and "yarny" community. Beth spent over 60 years crocheting for others. She was able to finally crochet a purple prayer shawl for herself as she battled a losing fight with cancer.

Beth has spent her life advocating and standing up for everyone's rights, encouraging others to be kind and pay it forward.

Beth is preceded in death by her soulmate; Jeff Jenkins, parents; Josephine (Hrabak) and Wesley Lindberg and many beloved friends.

Beth is survived by her fur baby; Max-a-Million, children; Jason (Kristin) McCammon and Yvonne McCammon, four Lindberg siblings; Wesley (Deb), Yvonne, Christopher (Leanne) and Matthew (Tina), grandchildren; Jaydin, Bryce, Annabelle, Levi, Dominic Jeffery and Carmen McCammon. Also survived by beloved niblings; Claire (Ian) Troxel, Matt J. (Katie Golden) Lindberg, Angelique Thurston (Brian Braun) as well as six great-niblings.

Beth has one last special request: To raise a glass of domestic beer (such as Michelob) in her honor and enjoy it with a loved one.

I am the resurrection and the life: He that believeth in me though he were dead yet shall he live.
And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die.
