The Beauty of Time

Beautiful Soul, raised in the Lord, she chose to follow. Walked with God held his hand & talked to him daily and in him raised her babies. In turn given longevity to see almost a century and enjoy her fruits. Gave him control over every situation, so that we could be blessed no matter the circumstances. Through rain or shine she called on the divine and in turn he gave her time. Time to reach, time to teach, time to preach the good word and to those she was given, so that they too could know his love and be taken above to forever be loved and covered by the Master's hand. She followed his plan and held on to his loving hand.
