The Day God Called You Home

God looked around his garden and found an empty place,
He then looked down upon the earth and saw your loving face.

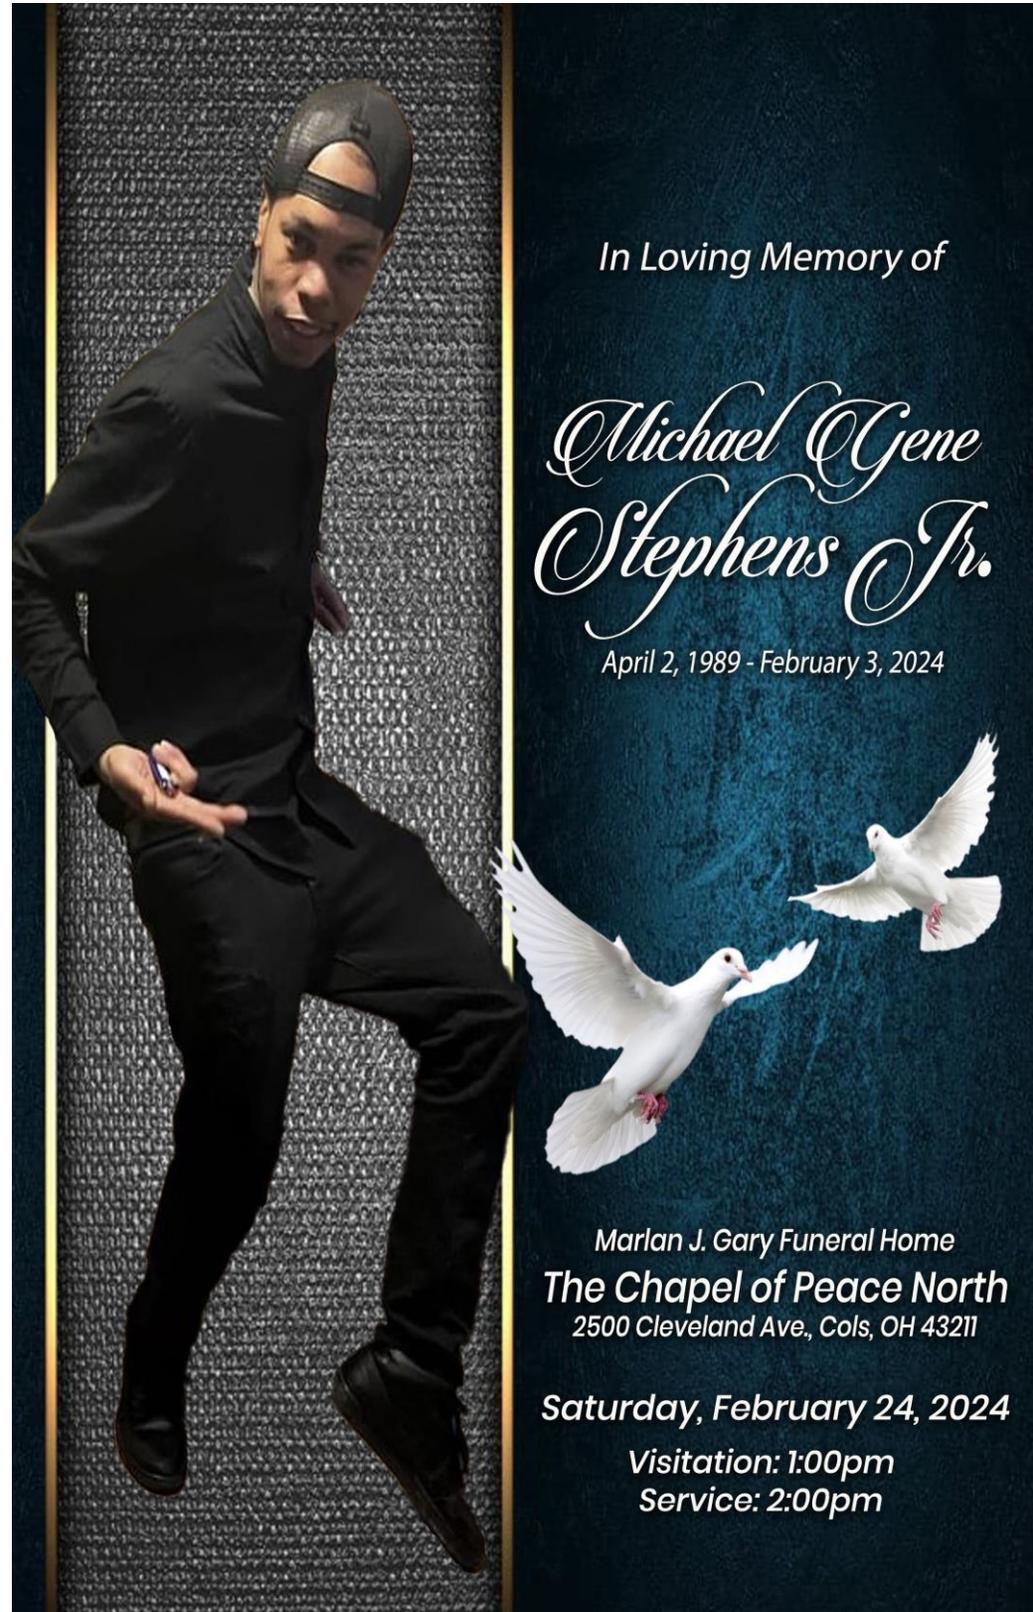

He put his arms around you and lifted you to rest,
God's garden must be beautiful, He always takes the best.
He knew that you were suffering, He knew you were in pain.

He knew that you would never get well on earth again.
He saw the road was getting rough and the hills were hard to climb.
So he closed your weary eyes, and whispered, 'Peace be Thine'.

When we saw you sleeping, so calm and free of pain,
We couldn't you wish you back to Earth, to suffer once again.
You've left us precious memories, your love will be our guide,
You live on through your children, you're always by our side.

It broke our hearts to lose you, but you didn't go alone,
For part of us went with you, the day God called you home.
