~ Obituary ~

Mrs. Jennie Mae Victor entered this life on September 29, 1938, to the union of Mr. Oscar Freeman and Mrs. Beulah Kate Key Freeman, both of whom preceded her in death.

She attended Washington Street School. At an early age, she joined St. Paul A. M.E. Church and attended until her health began to fail. She began working early in life, later retiring from Covington Manor Nursing Home, after twenty years of service. Early in life she married Mr. Willie Clifford Victor, later preceding her in death.

"Jennie Mae" as she was affectionally called, always wore a smile. She was a devoted and loving mother and grandmother. She loved people and never met a stranger. On January 10th, 2018, she earned her wings and entered eternal life.

TO THOSE I LOVE AND THOSE WHO LOVE ME

When I am gone, release me-let me go. I have so many things to see and do.

You must not tune yourself to me with tears. Be happy that we had so many beautiful years. I gave to you my love, you can only guess, how much you gave me in happiness. I thank you for the love you have shown, But, now it's time I travel alone. So, grieve a while for me, if grieve you must. Then let your grief be comforted by trust. It's only for a while that we must part. So, bless the memories within your heart. I won't be far away, for life goes on. So, if you need me, call and

I will be near, and if you listen with your heart, you'll hear all my love so clear.

And when you must come this way alone. I'll greet you with a smile and

"Welcome You Home"
