I Am Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard his call,
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of the day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My Life's been full, I savored much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

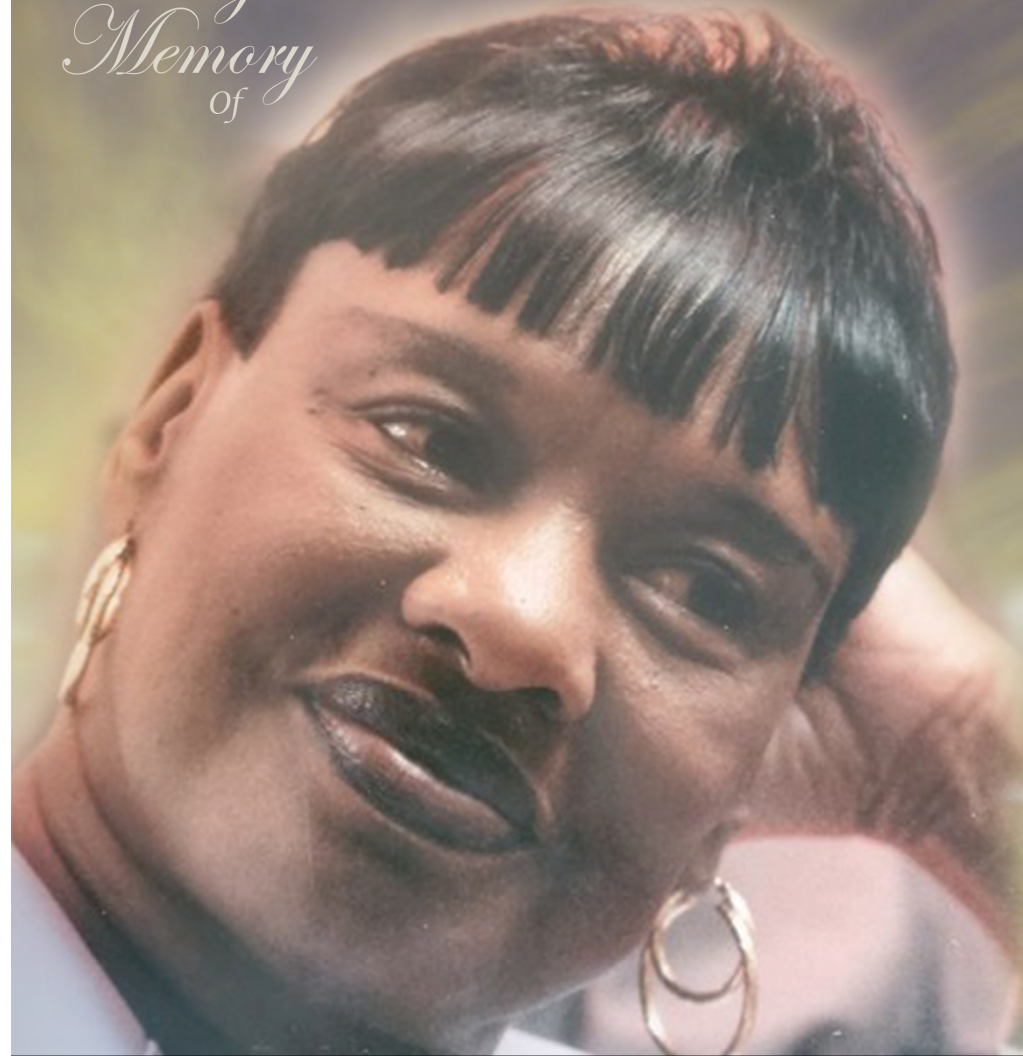

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.

Obituary

Betty Lou (Bosley) Peele was born September 8, 1938 to Walter Henderson and Albertina Graham in Winston Salem, North Carolina. She peacefully departed this life on Sunday, April 25, 2021 in the comfort of her home.

Betty's mother died at an early age, and she quit school to care for all 5 of her siblings. Betty retired from Columbus Public Schools after 25 years of service. She was an avid seamstress who made the entire family's Easter attire. In her spare time, she attended Sawyer Senior Recreation Center where she painted and molded ceramics. She enjoyed cooking, shopping, and coordinating her attire on a daily basis. During her illness she also enjoyed her weekly door dash food delivery from her granddaughter, Camille, as well as her weekly treats from granddaughter, Nydia. Each time Betty was asked about how many children she had, she would say-13, I raised 10 kids on the weekday and 3 on the weekend.

Betty is preceded in death by parents, Walter Henderson, and Albertina Graham; and son, Keith Allen Bosley, Sr.

Betty leaves to cherish her memory, children, Kim Bell, Michelle Netter, and Chericader Manns of Columbus, Ohio, and Roger Bosley Jr. of Griffin, Georgia; brothers, Roy (Sabrina) Kelley, Eddie (Janet) Kelley, Ronald (Margurite) Kelley, and Albert Kelley; sister, Beverly Perrin; nine grandchildren; 15 great grandchildren; four great-great grandchildren; close friends, Eddie Reed, Roy Wade, Willa Hicks, John Roberson, and Gloria Freeman; and hosts of nieces and nephews.

though he were dead yet shall he live.
And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die.*
