Miss Me But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little- but not for long
And not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that we once shared
Miss me- but let me go

For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone
Its all a part of the master plan
A step on the toad to home

When you are lonely and sick of heart
Go to the friends we know
And burry your sorrows in doing good deeds
Miss me- But let me go!

The Obituary

Woyneshet Mamo went home to be with the Lord on January 23, 2022. She was born on May 13, 1958, in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia.

She was raised in Ethiopia and when she was older moved to Greece where her aunt was living at the time. After living in Greece for some time, she went on to move to Los Angeles, California where she later met her husband, Samuel. While in Los Angeles, she attended college to be a dental lab technician. After getting married and when her daughter was about eight years of age, the family moved to Columbus, Ohio.

Her favorite hobby was gardening. She loved planting a variety of different flowers and herbs. She loved to cook and was very good at cooking her traditional Ethiopian cuisine and American dishes.

She loved God with all her heart, and she was a very caring person and wanted to help anyone she could.

She was preceded in death by her parents and her husband Samuel 'Tsegaye' Alemu.

She leaves to cherish her memory her daughter Samra Alemu, her brothers Debebe Seifu and Shimelis Gebremeskel, and her nieces Leah Seifu and Lydia Seifu.

We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord.
~2 Corinthians 5:8
