

Acknowledgement

The family of Edward Craft Jr. (Skip) is extremely grateful for all the kindness displayed during this difficult time. Whether you sent a card or flowers, offered comforting words, lent a shoulder, whispered a prayer, or simply kept us in your thoughts, it has not gone unnoticed.

Remember me as I was.... not a care in the world. Never met a stranger and expressed my thoughts without remorse. Remember me as SKIP!
Remember Me

The Broken Chain

We little knew that morning
That God would call your name
In life we loved you dearly
In death we do the same

It broke our hearts to lose you
You did not go alone
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home

You left us beautiful memories
Your love is still our guide
And although we cannot see you
You're always by our side

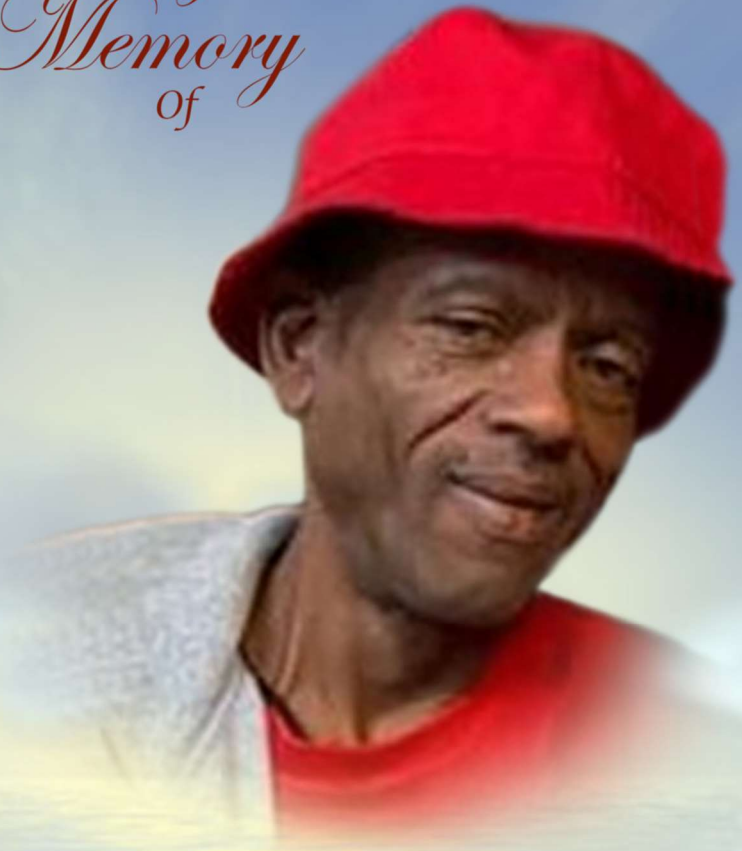

Our family chain is broken
And nothing seems the same
But as God calls us one by one
The chain will link again

The Obituary

Edward E. Craft Jr. (Skip) was born on January 10, 1959, to Edward E Craft Sr., and Charlie Mae Craft. He was taken away suddenly on Sunday October 10, 2021, at his residence.

He graduated from Westbury high in Westbury, New York. Skip had various jobs in his lifetime, but the job he loved the most was working with his close friend Chris and nephew Boo remodeling homes.

Skip was a fun-loving man who constantly joked around and loved to tease. He was a lot like his dad. Skip was the life of the party, telling interesting stories with everyone wondering if it was truth or fiction.

Skip had many hobbies. He loved traveling, playing cards, dominoes, and enjoyed cookouts with his family and friends, and his most favorite was playing baseball, and he had the trophies to prove it.

Edward was preceded in death by his father, Edward E Craft Sr, Mother Charlies Mae Craft and brother, Alfred L Davis.

Skip leaves to cherish his memory, sisters, Myra Eldridge and Patricia Anderson, Dear friends LaPorsha Chapple and Devan Chapple, very best friend his dog "PRINCESS", a host of nieces, nephews, great nieces, great nephews, cousins, and many friends.

I am the resurrection and the life: He that believeth in me though he were dead yet shall he live.

And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die.
