I Am Not There

*Do not stand at my grave and weep,
I am not there, I do not sleep.
I am in a thousand winds that blow,
I am the softly falling snow.*

*I am the gentle showers of rain,
I am the fields of ripening grain.
I am in the morning hush,
I am in the graceful rush*

*Of beautiful birds in circling flight,
I am the starshine of the night.
I am in the flowers that bloom,
I am in a quiet room.*

*I am in the birds that sing,
I am in each lovely thing.
Do not stand at my grave and cry,
I am not there. I do not die.*

Obituary

Marlin Emar Bosley was born October 7, 1973 to Grace Clark and Charles Bosley in Columbus, Ohio.

Marlin attended Mifflin and Brookhaven High School. He was a member of Triedstone Missionary Baptist Church. He also sang in the YDS Youth Choir.

Marlin had a passion for Rap music. If you knew Marlin, you would not want to compete with him, in the rap game.

Marlin loved family gatherings. He would always be one of the first to arrive to any occasion. He always smiled even if he did not have much to say. He was a caring person to friends and family. If you needed someone to talk to, he was always a listening ear. He also loved the Dallas Cowboys.

Marlin is preceded in death by his parents, Grace Clark and Charles Bosley; brothers, Eric Bosley and Aaron Bosley.

Marlin leaves to cherish his memory, brothers, Kenyatta Bosley, Charles (Gloria Jean) Bosley Jr., Victor Bosley, Larry Bosley, and Anthony (Pam) Bosley; sisters, Joyce Crockett, Elaine (Leon) Champion, and Tammie Handy; and a host of nephews, other relatives, and friends.

Marlin will be forever missed by all those who had the privilege of knowing and loving him.
