The Obituary

Timothy (Tim) P. Holland was born on May 24, 1961, in Camp Springs, MD, to Constance Poellnitz and Welton Holland. He was raised in Sunderland, Maryland by his late grandparents Rosher and Elnora Holland. On June 8, 2023, God suddenly called Tim home.

Tim graduated from Northern High School and he also attended Charles County Community College, Charles County, MD, where he studied Health Physics. He worked as a Health Physics and Industrial Hygienist Hazardous Waste Management Professional for 25 years, in the nuclear field with a variety of specializations including oil, air, water collection and shipping. His specialized job started at the Calvert Cliffs Plant in Calvert County, MD, and afforded him the opportunity to work in many states such as Ohio, Michigan, Tennessee, Maine, California, Nevada, Chicago and finally New York where he was a supervisor.

Tim was a devoted man of God, who cherished his wife, children, grandchildren and extended family with boundless love and care. His unwavering support and presence in their lives were a source of strength and comfort, and his absence will be deeply felt by those who were closest to him. Tim's dedication to his family served as a testament to the values he held dear – the values of love, loyalty, and unwavering commitment. He loved spending time with his grandkids, cleaning his vehicles and watching sports.

Throughout his life, Tim mentored young adult men, refereed for Columbus Recreation Centers, and served as a Deacon at New Birth Christian Ministries. He embraced his responsibilities with the utmost devotion. He not only joined a weekly prayer line, praying and covering endless people, but he would go to the homeless shelter and speak and offer words of encouragement to those who had fallen on hard times. If God gave him a word to share, he shared it, and many of us were blessed to receive a daily, weekly, or random texted scripture. The text would come unexpectedly but would be the word you needed to hear to get you through. In the church he was a pillar of strength, a beacon of hope, and a source of inspiration for all who knew him. His genuine compassion, unwavering dedication, and selfless service to our church and community will forever be etched in our hearts.

He is proceeded in death by his grandparents Rosher and Elnora Holland; parents Welton Holland and Constance Poellnitz; siblings Mario Holland and MonaLisa (Eric) Handon; son Keion Fields. Following death, Father-in-Law, Earl Fields Jr.

He is survived by his wife Kimberly Holland; Children Keysa Bullard, Kyle Fields, Brandy Wright, Doug Wright, Dajon Sweeney and William Houston; Mother-in-Law Jean Fields; Siblings Derrick (Stephanie) Pringle, Martin "Tony" (Lanya) Holland, Pamela (Dennis) Lewis, Dainer (Lemuel) Hunter, Paula (Sherman) Johnson, Crystel (Odell) Scott, Marcus (Jacqueline) Holland, Melissa (Anton) Mitchell, Marquita Holland, Michael Brooks and Dennis Brooks; Spiritual Parents Thomas and Mattie Downs and Vincent Johnson; his 18 grandkids and a host of uncles, cousins, nieces, nephews and special friends.

Don't Weep for Me

*Don't weep for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard his call,
I turned my back and left it all.*

*I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of the day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.*

*Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My Life's been full, I savored much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.*

*Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.*

My Brother

For 30 years, you have been a vital part of my life and I am so blessed to God for granting me this blessing.

You were the true definition of a brother and always showed unconditional love to me. There has been mountain top and in the valley experience between us but our love for each other never waiver.

You would always say Sis, can I talk to you, and I don't mean no harm just want to talk to you and I would feel that I say lawd, what did I do now and then you would say your peace and we ended our conversation with I love you.

My heart is hurting, and I am going to miss you more than you would ever know but I am trusting God through this process.

There was never a dull moment with, and you encouraged me doing my hardest moments and I truly appreciate you from my core.

My days will never be the same, but I will keep on pressing toward the mark and I can you saying Sis, I am proud of you, you are growing.

Thank you for being an ambassador for Christ, amazing brother, outstanding husband, father, uncle etc.

I will continue to be by Kim side, and we will continue to grow together. You left a footprint in my heart and thanks for being my brother.

Rest on in Jesus's arm, Rest on. Gone but never forgotten.

Love always your sister!
Crystel
