I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard his call,
I turned my back and left it all.*

*I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of the day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.*

*Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My Life's been full, I savoured much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch,*

*Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.*

The Obituary

David was born July 9, 1960 in Beckley WV and later in life moved to Columbus, OH, so of the late James and Lyvonias Evans. He served his time in the US Army with an honorable discharge. He became a member of the Meeting Point Ministry shortly after giving his life to the Lord.

David had a love of fishing, working on cars, and hunting on the Evans Hill, he was co-founder of The Saddle Tramp M.C. which he found great joy in riding with. David had a passion for cooking and telling jokes, which he knew would make everyone smile. He also had a great love for his family, especially his kids and grandkids.

David fought a long and hard battle with his wife Doris (Laney) Evans and his family by his side and always stated "I will die with cancer and not from cancer".

David is preceded in death by his parents, James and Lyvonias Evans; and four siblings, James Evans, Jr., Donna L (Missy) Evans, Marie Evans, and Cynthia Evans.

David leaves to cherish his memory wife, Doris Evans; children, Biggie Phares, David Braze (Tameka) Evans, Jr., Jason (JoAnn) Bowles, Ramona Bowles, and Anthony Lewis; eight siblings, Roger (Linda) Evans, Edgar (Gloria) Evans, Lawrence (Cheryl) Evans, Lorenzo Charles (Greta) Evans, John (Susan) Evans, Richard (Yvette) Evans, Justine (Charles) Slaughter, and Linda (Robert) Bell; four grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives, and friends; including a very special family member, faithful dog Earl Evans.
