Obituary

Quanail Jawan Christian was born on Saturday, January 2, 1982, in Columbus, OH to Thersa Christian and Maceo Radford, Sr. of Columbus, OH. Quanail was the baby of 3 older siblings. Quanail (Chuck) was loved by everyone and had the most forgiving heart.

Quanail attended Linden McKinley High School. Quanail was employed for many years by different food companies. His last known job, which he loved and hated, he would always talk about quitting, but we all knew he wasn't (LOL). Chuck enjoyed life, family, laughing, dancing, shopping, food, hats and his most favorite (icehouse). Chuck was known as "Dolil" and "Choo-Choo, The Caring One." Chuck was the heart of the family.

Anytime there was a problem, Chuck either showed up to solve or worsen the problem. Chuck loved his 5 children more than anything in the world. His special nickname for them was "The Fab Five."

Chuck would always say, "I live day to day, might as well make the best out of it." On Tuesday, October 31st, 2023, in Columbus, OH, Quanail Jawan Christian was called home to be with the Lord. We rejoice in knowing that Chuck has been reunited with his heavenly father, Maceo Radford, Sr.; his grandparents, Christian and Radford. Chuck leaves to cherish his everlasting memory with his five children, Daja Mickey, Quanail Christian, Jr. (Q), Cornelle Christian (Dink), Kaylee Christian, Kyla Christian; his wife, Nikita (Niki); sister, Tonya Ward; brothers, Laquans Christian, Maceo Christian, Jr.; grandchildren, Da'Vayah Price, Tyree Price, Jr.; niece, Taquayla Goins; nephew, Malon Christian, also hosted by many cousins, nieces, aunts, uncles, nephews, family and friends. But mainly leaving his two best friend, Larry Christian, and Cameron Brodis.
