Obituary

Walter E. Stewart Sr., 83 years old, was born July 12, 1940, in Columbus, Ohio. Walter made his peaceful transition to be with the Lord on Thursday November 9, 2023, at Mount Carmel East in Columbus, Ohio.

Walter was reunited with his wife of 51 years, Theresa (Hairston) Stewart, parents Hasker and Hattie Stewart, mother and father-in-law Maude and Eugene Hariston, brothers Donald Stewart, Gail Stewart, and Dail Stewart whom all preceded him in death.

He leaves to cherish his memory his four children, daughters Renada (Sherrod) Manns, Aubree Manns, Robin (Rock) Jones, son Walter Stewart Jr., five grandchildren, grandsons Antiwan Fraley, Kayden Stewart, granddaughters Asia Anderson, Simya Hutchins, Sabrina Gram, four great grandchildren, one great great grandchild, and a host of special nieces, nephews, relatives, and friends.

Walter was an intelligent and talented man. Everything he did with a passion. He credited the Lord for his faith and life over the span of his life. He graduated from East High School. He worked at Buckeye Steel Franklin County Contractor, Coca-Cola, and he retired from Agria Laboratory and started his own business full-time, Stewart's Painting Company. If fishing was a paid job, he would have been employee of the year and even a millionaire. Walter had a great work ethic. He constantly set an example as a hard-working man.

Walter was a loving man. His world revolved around his family. He loved and enjoyed spending time with his family and also telling stories. He enjoyed spending time with his basketball friends at White Castle cookouts etc. which to mention his third love which should be his first all that knew him know he loved to Eat. He made us all laugh with the best jokes wise word and love. He sacrificed everything for his family's needs. Walter's passion for fishing was instilled in everyone around him especially his children and grand babies and he took pride in his accomplishments He was the king in fishing but I'm sure Junior Gonzales would have something to say about that. He loved basketball. He was a force to be reckoned with on the basketball court. He also loved ministering to others about Jesus, never being judgmental to others, that's why he was loved by many. Traveling, vacation time and putting smiles on everyone's faces was a must. He accepted everyone with an open heart and love.
