I Heard Your Voice in the Wind Today

*I heard your voice in the wind today,
and I turned to see your face;
The warmth of the wind caressed me
as I stood silently in place.*

*I felt your touch in the sun today
as its warmth filled the sky;
I closed my eyes for your embrace,
and my spirit soared so high.*

*I saw your eyes in the window pane
as I watched the falling rain;
It seemed as each tiny raindrop fell
it quietly said your name.*

*I held you close in my heart today.
It made me feel complete;
You may have died, but you are not gone.
You will always be a part of me.*

*As long as the sun shines,
the rain falls, and the wind blows,
You'll live on inside of me
for that is all my heart knows.*

As we stood helplessly around during the evening hours on Wednesday, January 4, 2023, we knew not the strange language the Lord whispered in our son's and brother's ear, but one thing we knew was that he had no fear because he knew in whom he had believed, and he was satisfied that He was able to keep him all the way.

Obituary

Kevin Lamont Cook was born on May 6, 1965 in Columbus, Ohio to Eugenia Brown Caldwell and the late Roland Cook. He departed this life to eternal rest on Wednesday January 4, 2023, at Riverside Hospital.

Kevin accepted Jesus Christ as his personal savior at an early age and was baptized at Christ Memorial Baptist Church.

Kevin attended Brookhaven High School where he was a Basketball star and ran track. Kevin was loved by many for his outgoing personality and his sense of style.

Kevin could always be found giving back to others nurturing their talent. Kevin coached several little league football and basketball teams from 1987- 2009 including All Ohio Basketball and B.Js Basketball. Kevin was such a good coach, he won championships at Rickenbacker and Greenlawn.

K.K., as he was known, was an entrepreneur. He was a promoter and opened several stores, Y2K Kid's Fashions and Options Boutique. He had standards that he set for himself and others and was loved for it. In fact, his friends would tease him as being "OCD" because he would straighten up other people's homes to keep them neat and presentable.

When Kevin joined Christian Valley Baptist Church, he became the definition of faithful servant. He drew many to the fellowship, and souls to Christ, with his testimony and his commitment. He walked the walk everywhere of his love for God and his church family. If the church was open, you would find Kevin there, serving and worshipping.

Kevin L. Cook was preceded in death by his brothers; Charles Anthony (Tony), Andre Lavelle, maternal grandparents; Inez Scott Brown and Julius C. Brown and paternal grandparents; Ella Mae Cook and William Cook, Sr., uncles; Donald Brown, William (Billy) Brown, aunts; Martha Burtch, Maryann Brown, and Shirley Brown.

We little knew the day that God was going to call your name.
In life we loved you dearly,
In death we do the same.

It broke our hearts to lose you
But you didn't go alone.
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home.

You left us peaceful memories.
Your love is still our guide,
And though we cannot see you
You are always by our side.

Our family chain is broken and nothing seems the same,
but as God calls us one by one
the chain will link again.

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room
Why cry for a soul set free.

Miss me a little, but not too long
And not with your head bowed low,
Remember the love
that we once shared
Miss me, but let me go.

For this is a journey that we must all take
And each must go alone,
It's all a part of the Master's plan
A step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick of heart
Go to the friends we know,
And bury your sorrows
in doing good deeds
Miss me, but let go.
