The Broken Chain

We little knew that morning
That God would call your name
In life we loved you dearly
In death we do the same

It broke our hearts to lose you
You did not go alone
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home

You left us beautiful memories
Your love is still our guide
And although we cannot see you
You're always by our side

Our family chain is broken
And nothing seems the same
But as God calls us one by one
The chain will link again

Obituary

Christopher Clemine Steward was born January 5, 1956, the son of John Steward and Helen Clayborn in Columbus, Ohio. He was one of six children of this loving family.

Although Christopher Clemine Steward was a private man, he loved and cherished the time he spent with family and friends. When he smiled it radiated the room causing a ripple effect causing everyone else to smile.

Christopher Clemine Steward was preceded in death by his parents, John Steward and Helen Clayborn.

Christopher Clemine Steward leaves to cherish his memory, siblings, Brenda (Anthony) Murray, Anthony Steward (all of Alabama), John Steward, Jr., Sheila Steward, and Viola Davis (all of Columbus, Ohio); sons, Christopher (Sierra McCaskill) Dean, Sr. and Brian (Nora) Dean, Sr.; grandchildren, Alexis Smith, Ruth Yanni, Chrissauna Dean, Christopher Dean, Jr., Brian Dean, Jr., Asia Dean, TyWayne Hammonds, and Anaiya Dean; nine great grandchildren; and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, friends, including special friend, Loretta Dean.

Christopher will be truly missed by all those who had the privilege of knowing and loving him.
