She worked from 1966 to 2010. retiring when she was 83. Following Harris' death in 1990 Glorietta remained living on the farm until December of 2020.

Glorietta was a life long member of St. Joseph Catholic Church. She enjoyed being at home and was known for keeping a very neat and orderly house. Glorietta also enjoyed being with the residents and other staff at Brookside Manor. Her hobbies included crocheting and going on an occasional outing to the casino with friends. But most of all, Glorietta was a wonderful caregiver to her family. She loved to bake and would not take "no" for an answer to taste her treats.
