Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little, but not for long
And not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that once we shared
Miss me, but let me go.
For this is a journey we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the master plan
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at all the things we used to do
Miss me, but let me go.

Antwan Lamar Cook July 23, 1990 – July 12, 2023, Columbus, Ohio. Antwan Cook, 32 years old, was unexpectedly called home on Wednesday, July 12, 2023.

He was born from the beautiful union of his parents, Curtis and Kemily Cook, and was known to many as “Twan”, “Phat Twan”, and “Phat Tweezy.”

Antwan was caring, charismatic, and passionate about life and his imprint is forever etched in the hearts of those who had the privilege of knowing him.

He was mentored by Brother Cecil Ahad, Pastor Frederick LaMarr, Stacey Elliott (Salahuddin), and Dartangnan Hill (OG Half). This mentorship, in addition to the influence of his parents and god-father, rooted within him the “my brother’s keeper” creed. Antwan was a pioneer for change and community empowerment, and he always encouraged growth within his circle of family, friends, and the community. Antwan was a creative self-made artist, designer, and brand owner of Soufghanistan. He was a trailblazing trendsetter who travelled and collaborated with many legendary artists from coast to coast. Antwan was a gifted writer and talented performer, his music, like Antwan himself, touched the masses. Antwan wrote and produced thought provoking music that shared his story, his experiences, and his growth as he navigated through life.

His legacy will live forever. Antwan loved his entire family, and his family loved him. Antwan’s children, parents, and siblings held a very special place in his heart. He was a loving father, son, grandson, uncle, brother, nephew, cousin, and friend to so many loved ones. Antwan had an infectious smile and a heart of gold, and his presence, his laughter, and his love will be infinitely missed.

Antwan is predeceased by his maternal and paternal grandparents, Juanita White and Thomas Bell, Alice Faye Bryant and Roger Miller; uncles, Lawrence Bryant, Jr. and Hudon Nicholes; aunts, Ramona Cosby-Saunders and Francine Cosby and niece, Ky’lisiah Cook.
