

Acknowledgement

The family of Sandra Novella Hairston wishes to express our sincere appreciation for all acts of kindness shown to us during our time of bereavement.

Miss Me But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room.
Why cry for a soul set free?*

*Miss me a little—but not too long
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me—but let me go.*

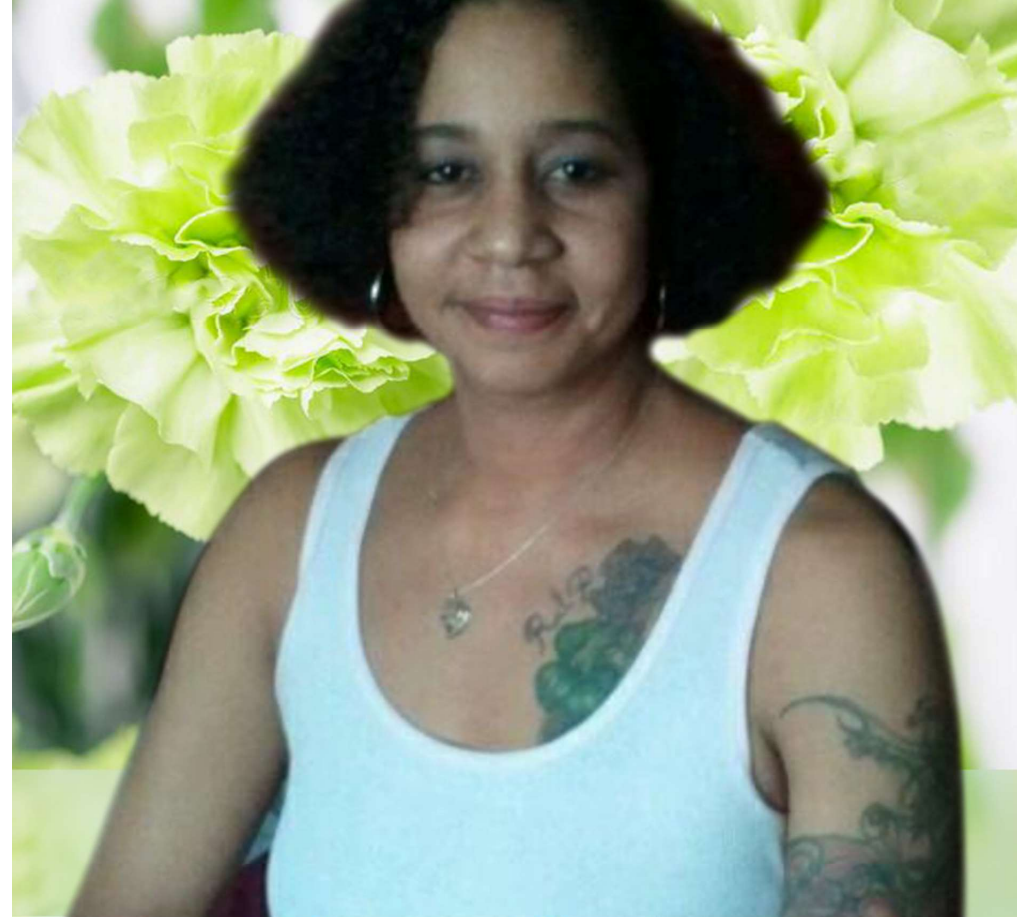

*For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.*

*When you are lonely and sick of heart
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds.
Miss Me—But Let me Go!*

Obituary

Beloved Mother, Grandmother, Sister, Aunt, Daughter, a Precious Vessel shaped by the Hand Of God, was sent into this world with a Gift of Love, laughter and the thrill of life that she reached out, touched, and shared her strength to family and friends. Always seeking Peace and Giving what she had.

Sandra Novella Hairston was born on July 27, 1966 to the parents of Suzanne (Sue) and McGlenard (Mac) Hairston, in the city of Columbus, Ohio where she attended the public school and graduated from Northland High School.

Sandra enjoyed family and always brought a since of life to the room where-ever we gathered. She enjoyed church and surrendered her life to Christ in 1979 and was Baptized at Church Of Christ Apostolic Faith. Sandra continued to Seek the Will of God for her life as she attended different churches in the community.

She was blessed with two children, a son Terrell Hairston and a daughter Tejuanna Wiley. She was employed by several hotels where she enjoyed house-keeping and keeping a smile on her clients faces.

She is survived by her parents, Suzanne and McGlenard Hairston, son Terrell and daughter Tejuanna, one brother McGlenard (MC) Hairston II and two granddaughters, a host of cousins, nieces and nephews, and other relatives.
