The Bridge To Home

There is a bridge that takes us home.

We cannot walk around.

When we see God's outstretched hand

We know were homeward bound.

We must not grieve when a loved one leaves.

Only God knows best.

When our work on earth is done

We cross the bridge of rest.

Obituary

Clara Mae (Gould) Giles was born on September 3, 1936, in Rutledge, Alabama, to John and Clara (Staggers) Gould.

Clara graduated from Crenshaw County Training School in May 1954. She married Moses Giles after her graduation and to their union, had four children. Clara relocated to Columbus, Ohio, in 1961.

She had become an employee of the Central Ohio Psychiatric Hospital and retired in 1997 after 30 years of service. Clara was a faithful member of Ebenezer Baptist Church which she attended until her health would no longer allow it.

She was known for her great sense of humor and would not hesitate to put you back in place if she felt it was needed.

Clara is preceded in death by her three brothers; Johnny, William, and Willie Joe, six sisters; Eula, Ola, Dorothy, Emma, Vira, and Ottie D and one grandchild; Randy Jr.

She leaves to cherish her memory, four children; Barbara, Jerone, Sandra (Robert), and Marcus, six grandchildren; Carlos (Roxy), Wayne (Michelle), Rommie (Carmen), Randy (Chanda), Jeffrey, and Pharrin, seventeen great-grandchildren, three great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins, and a host of family and friends.
