

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sang a lovely song or sat quietly in a chair, Perhaps you sent beautiful flowers, if so, we saw them there; Perhaps you sent or spoke kind words, as only a friend can say, Perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us that day, Perhaps you prepared some tasty food or maybe furnished a card; Perhaps you rendered a service unseen, near at hand or from afar. Whatever you did to console the heart, we thank you so much-whatever the part. Whatever you did to console the heart, we thank you so much-whatever the part. The entire Montgomery family will be forever grateful for all of your care, love, and support. It made a huge difference! We appreciate you!

Don't Cry For Me

Don't cry for me. I will be okay.

*Heaven is my home now,
and this is where I'll stay.*

Don't cry for me. I'm where I belong.

I want you to be happy and try to stay strong.

Don't cry for me. I am not alone.

The angels are with me to welcome me home.

Don't cry for me, for I have no fear.

All my pain is gone, and Jesus took my tears.

Don't cry for me. This is not the end.

I'll be waiting here for you when we meet again.

The Obituary

Frances G. Montgomery was born on March 27, 1944, to the late Posie T. Greene and Margret O. Taylor in Jenkin Jones, West Virginia. She was the 7th child of 7 born to this union.

Frances was a devoted wife, mother, sister and warm-hearted friend. She was honest and always willing to share her wisdom or advice. She loved traveling with her School Reunions, Family Reunions and Hometown Reunions. Frances also loved visiting family and friends. She was a hardworking, meticulous housekeeper who insisted on everything being in order.

At an early age, Frances confessed Jesus Christ as her Savior in WV. She attended Gary District High School in Gary, WV. Shortly afterwards she moved to Bronx, N.Y. and worked as a domestic engineer, cashier at A & P, and a janitor at PS 100. She met and married the love of her life Robert L. Montgomery. Their union produced two daughters Tayonda and Shonia (Robin).

Frances and her family moved to Columbus, Ohio in the summer of 1973. She was a cashier at United Dairy Farm, and A & P. Then she worked at Bank One/IBM as a supervisor and Help Desk Technician for 29 years. While at Bank One she got her real estate license in 1987.

Frances G. Montgomery made her transition from her earthly home to her heavenly home, on July 29, 2021. She leaves to cherish her memory, her daughters; Tayonda Singleton and Shonia Stokes (Lee); three granddaughters, Teneshia Johnson, Brooke Stokes, Seava Harris-Stokes; two grandsons, Terrence Johnson and Tre' Stokes, and great grandchildren. Her three sisters; Virginia Rucker, Mary Adams, Ann Brown, and three brothers; Troy Gill, Posie T. Green III, Emanuel T. Green; and a host nieces, nephews, cousins, relatives, and friends.

She was preceded in death by her parents (Posie and Margret Greene), three stepbrothers (Joe Lewis, Posie T. Greene Jr., Ben L. Greene.)

Frances was a hardworking, meticulous housekeeper who insisted on everything being in order. She will be greatly missed, loved and remembered by all those who knew her.
