Obituary

The beloved, Tracy Lynn Crawley, age 54, departed this life to go home to be with the Lord, Saturday, January 20, 2024.

Tracy was born, Tuesday, January 20, 1970. She was the daughter of Virginia Crawley and the late George L. Crawley.

Tracy was known for being a “Boss” and for being the life of the party. Her upbeat energy and radiant smile would light up any room, and uplift anyone’s spirit. She took pride in her children and giving her all to her grand-babies.

Some of Tracy's greatest accomplishments were overcoming the streets, defeating addiction, and reforming her life to Christ. Her faith in God was undeniable.

She leaves to cherish her memories, her mother, Virginia Crawley; sister, Cathy Cox; brothers, Vance Crawley, Quan Crawley, Ricky Crawley; bonus sister, Denise; her seven children, Dejuan Crawley, Deshuan Crawley, Mercedes Crawley, Lamar Peoples, Shane Baxter, Shad Turner, Landus Bellamy, bonus daughter, Aliyah Colvin; grand-children, Deja, Ray'lynn, Dy'Miere, Raelle, Neh Miya, Ki'Shay, Torrence, Amari, Prince, Tyaire, Angelica; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, friends, special friend, James Ray; besties, Melinda, Jolene, and "The Golden Girls"; and lastly, her grand-son, Geno.

Preceding in her death, father, George L. Crawley; and sister, Leandra Crawley.

We little knew that day,
God was going to call your name.
In life, we loved you dearly,
In death, we do the same.

It broke our hearts to lose you.
You did not go alone.
For part of us went with you,
The day God called you home.

You left us peaceful memories,
Your love is still our guide.
And although we cannot see you,
You are always at our side.

Our family chain is broken,
And nothing seems the same,
But as God calls us one by one,
The chain will link again.

Broken Chain

Do not stand at my grave and weep.

I am not there. I do not sleep.

I am a thousand winds that blow.

I am the diamond glints on snow.

I am the sunlight on ripened grain.

I am the gentle autumn rain.

When you awaken in the morning's hush.

I am the swift uplifting rush.

Of quiet birds in circled flight.

I am the soft stars that shine at night.

Do not stand at my grave and cry;

I am not there. I did not die.
