I'm Resting Now

*I lived this life, I loved you all,
I did what I could do,
I'm resting now, in peace with the Lord,
But my spirit shall always be with you.
The love I had for each of you,
Even death can't take it apart,
For I took that love along with me,
Embedded in my heart.*

*Don't worry about me,
Because I'm resting now.*

The Obituary

Kiandra Marche Haines, also known as Shukiie, age 30, entered into eternal rest March 26, 2022. Kiandra was born in Warren, OH on November 30, 1991, to Sharnette Shinn and Brian Haines. In 1998, Kiandra and her family relocated to Columbus, Ohio. She attended Columbus City Schools, and later earned her Associates Degree in Administrative Assisting.

Her energy was vibrant, her laugh was infectious, and she brightened any room she entered. She was the life of the party. She had a giving spirit and never showed up empty handed. Kiandra wasn't judgmental, and always saw the good in people. She was there for anyone who needed her, even through her own strife. Kiandra was the true definition of a "real one".

She is preceded by her maternal grandparents, Tommie Lou Farris and Allen Lyons, Sr.; paternal grandparents, Lucille J. Haines and Willie Haines; aunt, Tracey Lyons; uncle, Allen "Too" Lyons Jr.; big brother, Brian (Crawford) Smith; and cousins, James "Menace" Dotson, and Cedric Lyons, Jr..

She leaves to cherish her memory, her beautiful daughter, Jalayah Brielle; mother, Sharnette Shinn; father, Brian Haines; stepfather, Patrice Borbo; brother, Aaron Shinn; and sister, Janae Haines; stepsister, Sia Borbo-Sesay. She is also survived by her nieces, Mariah Shinn, Breeanna Laird, Nyla Thompson, and Harmony Miller; bonus sisters, Hannah Travis, and Lena Collins; goddaughter, Nadia; close friends; close cousins; and many aunts and uncles.
